

Dr. Dambisa Moyo

International Economist, Author of Global Bestseller "Dead Aid" and "How the West was Lost"

CSA CELEBRITY SPEAKERS

Dr. Dambisa Moyo is a renowned economist who analyses the global macroeconomy. Dr. Moyo has an established international reputation as a thought leader on the political and macroeconomic landscape across developing countries, in particular the BRICs and the frontier economies in Africa, Asia and South America. She currently serves on the boards of Barclays Bank, SABMiller, and Barrick Gold. In 2013, Ms. Moyo was awarded The Hayek Lifetime Achievement Award.

Dambisa Moyo's diagnosis of the recent disasters in financial markets is succinct and sophisticated...The Observer: Book Review

In detail

Dr. Moyo completed a PhD in Economics at Oxford University and holds a Masters degree from Harvard University. She has been named by Time Magazine as one of the "100 Most Influential People in the World", as well as to the World Economic Forum's Young Global Leaders group. Her work regularly appears in economic and finance-related publications such as the Financial Times, Barrons magazine, and the Wall Street Journal. Ms. Moyo is also a contributing editor to CNBC, the business and finance news network.

What she offers you

Ms. Moyo leverages her comprehensive economic understanding to inform a practical investment strategy, realise opportunities and manage risks across emerging economies. Her work examines the interplay between rapidly developing countries, international business, and the global economy, while highlighting investment opportunities and convergence themes.

How she presents

Dambisa is a powerful and effective speaker, who is in frequent demand at keynote summits and conferences around the globe.

Languages

She presents in English.

Want to know more?

Give us a call or send us an e-mail to find out exactly what she could bring to your event.

How to book her?

Simply phone, fax or e-mail us.

Video